

BoxCamp Brand Ambassador

Company Overview

BoxCamp is a UCLA based startup that provides summer storage solutions for college students. We pride ourselves in making the move-out process seamless by handling all of the logistics involved. As a young company, every member of our team is integral to our operations and we want to see you grow with us.

The Role

As a Brand Ambassador, you will be the face of BoxCamp on-campus and online. You are enthusiastic, social, and comfortable sharing our vision and services with everyone from your closest friends to complete strangers. You are flexible, reliable, and a strong communicator. In addition to your main role, you are creative and eager to participate during team meetings. With a bias towards action, you want to ensure our customers have an excellent experience.

Individual Responsibilities

- Flyer on Bruin Walk, across campus, and in Westwood Village
- Represent BoxCamp at company events and giveaways
- Post weekly on social media and in group messaging platforms
- Constantly seek opportunities to promote BoxCamp in the UCLA community
- Be the eyes and ears of the management team
- Ability to commit approximately 5-10 hours a week

Team Responsibilities

- Work on value-add projects as needed e.g. marketing, flyering, giveaways
- Have good understanding of operations by the time season begins
- Be present for team meetings and operations during 10th and Finals Week

Compensation

This position is paid with a stipend of $800 with performance-based bonuses
